

Stratton file

and MOSS POINT ADVERTISER

PAGE THREE—SECTION TWO

THE REV. SHAD SUMNERS, above, of Birmingham, will conduct a two-week revival at the Church of the Nazarene, 944 S. Pascagoula, starting Wednesday. Services will be each evening at 7:15, according to the Rev. J. O. Bearden, pastor.

Revival Services to Begin Jan. 19

Moss Point Presbyterian Installs Two New Elders And Four Deacons

With formal ceremony two new elders and four deacons were installed at Moss Point First Presbyterian Church Sunday with the Rev. Walter L. Bader, pastor, officiating.

J. R. Elkins and Harry Rogers, who had been ordained as deacons elsewhere, were installed, while R. W. Head and C. S. Beardslee were ordained and installed as deacons.

Ordained and installed as elders were Duncan McDonald and Carl McLeod.

BAPTIST

"Church Membership, a Force or a Field" will be the topic of the Rev. W. L. Stagg, Jr. at the morning worship hour Sunday at First Baptist Church. "Our Mission Task" will be the evening subject at 7 p. m.

A baptismal service will be held at 8 p. m. Sunday.

Scripture study Wednesday evening will be Matt. 5: 13-30 and will follow the guide book used by all Baptist church of the Southern Baptist convention at this season, Stagg said.

Woman's Society Will Be Hostess At Meet Jan. 16

Mrs. Sue Knotts, new counselor of the Junior MYFs of Escatawpa Methodist, met with the group Sunday at the Church. Diane Nelson, president, opened the meeting with prayer and Shirley Couch gave the Scripture reading.

Betsy Ross told the story "Jesus and the Children" and each member repeated a Bible verse. Mrs. Knotts voiced the closing prayer.

Miss Sine Smitz, visitor to the Senior MYF, was welcomed by the 19 members present at Sunday's meeting. Phyllis Greenough presented the program.

Mary Nell Grierson, president, announced a Sub-district meeting of MYF will be held at Hurlie Methodist Monday. Meeting was dismissed with the MYF prayer.

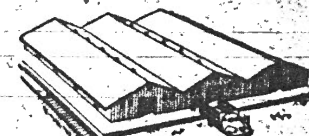

MEN'S MEET

JOSEPH STRATTON

Sgt. and Mrs. Joseph Samuel Stratton, 738 Foot, Pascagoula, are parents of a son, their second child, born at Keesler AFB hospital Dec. 29. He has been named Joseph Donald and weighed eight pounds and 11 ounces. Mrs. Stratton is the former Karen Dossett.

Auto Repairs
On Easy Terms!
See
Barrett Buick Co.

Tailored to Fit
Your Industry and Save You Dollars

FACTORIES

